

Conference Room Projector Quick Start Guide

- Instructions
- Wired Connection

Instructions

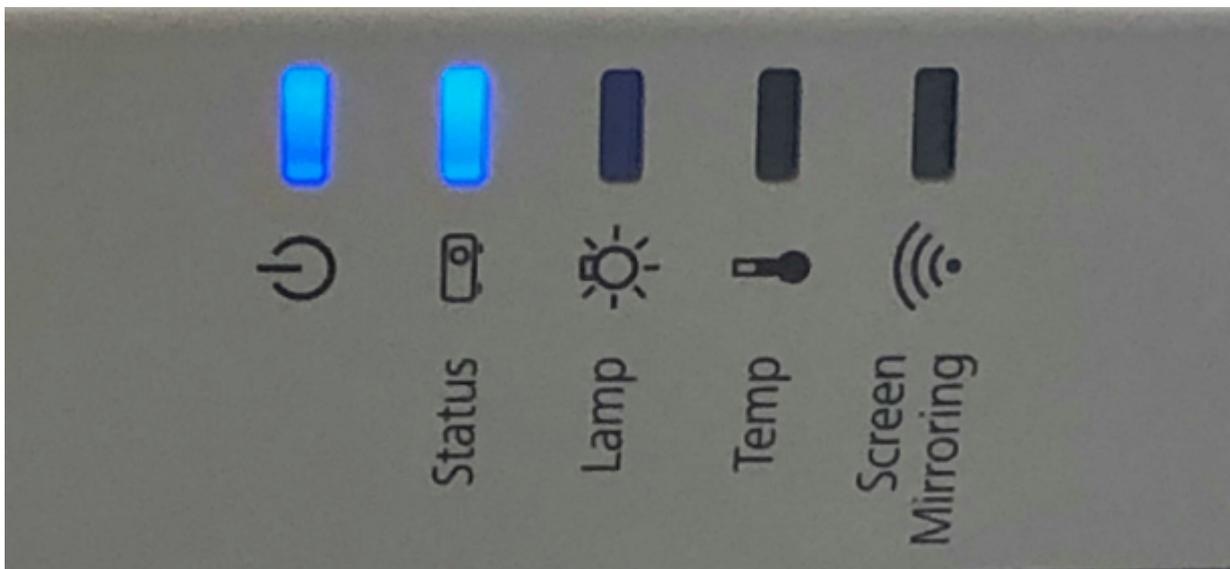

- Borrow the projector remote from Main Office.
- Press the Power button and give it a 30 seconds wait.

- The blue screen should appear on the projector screen.

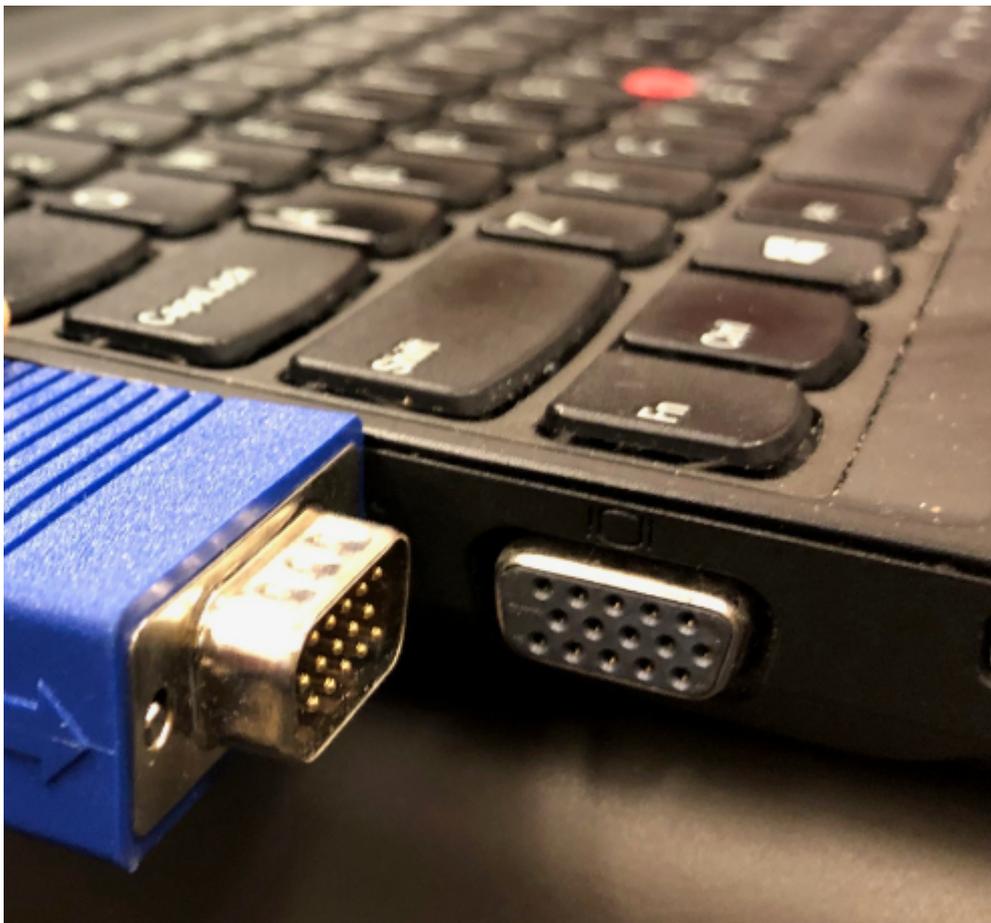

- Make sure the power and status LED are ON with blue light and are not blinking.

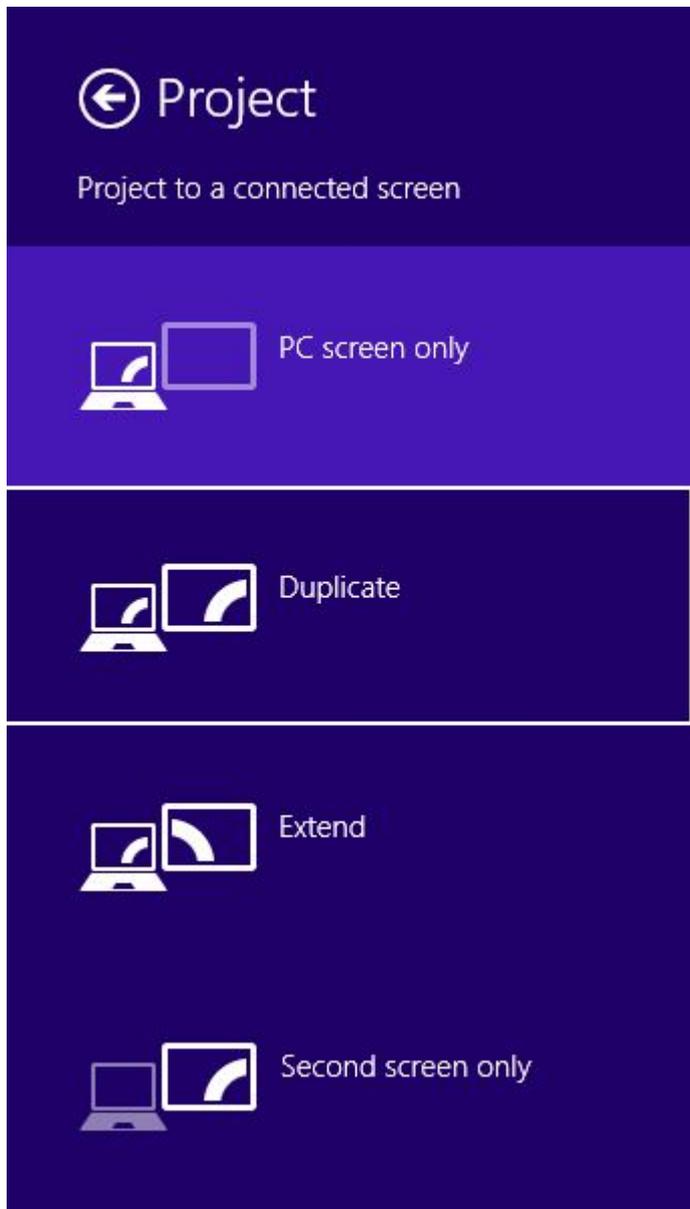

Wired Connection

- Connect your system to the projector via HDMI or VGA cable. Check your laptop/device to see what it supports,

- Press the Source Search button on the top right corner of the remote and allow the projector to select the appropriate display.
- The projector changes to appropriate mode depending on which cable you plugged in to the computer.
- In your system, Press Windows + P and select Screen Duplicate.

- You should be now be able to see your computer screen on the wall.